DREAMS

This was the theme of Homecoming 1987. Friday was a busy day, as always, with the parade, door judging, and preparations for a banquet. The night was filled with excitement with the crowning of our queen and an explosive win over Coffee Springs, 41-0. Afterwards, everyone celebrated the victory at the traditional Homecoming dance. Friday, October 9, 1987, was really a dream come true for Kinston High.

OUR FINAL WALK

As we take our final walk through these hallowed halls
Many memories return
The secrets we've shared, the fights we've had,
And the life-long lessons we've learned
We realize all that we are losing
As we walk the aisle two by two
We've cried a lot and laughed a lot
And helped each other through
Now all those times are over
We'll never do those things again
Not in the same way because today
A whole new life begins
For twelve years we've all been together
And in one day it will all be no more
As we reach out our hand and take our last stand
We open yet another door
Behind this door it is scary
We know not what may happen to us
But fate has it's way
No matter what we may say, nor how much we might fuss
Now, as we look around the room
At familiar faces we've seen through the years
People who've said, "I'll be glad to leave."
Their eyes now are filled with tears.

BETA CLUB

This year's Beta Club, under the direction of Judy Cain, added six new members to its total of twenty-one. Informal initiation was held during Beta Week which consisted of Pledge Day, Chain Gang Day, Costume Day, Performance Day, and Slave Day. The Beta Club also participated in one of this year's football pep rallies by singing the "Beastie Beta" song,"Fight for Your Right to Study!" For fund raisers the club continued to run the candy store and sold Krispy Kreme donuts for a $500 profit. Although seven members are graduating, the other Beta members are ready for next year's challenges.

BIBLE CLUB

Elizabeth Bowdin and the Bible Club members kept themselves busy this year with listening to guest speakers who have been to the Holy Land or Mexico on a mission trip and one visitor from Haiti. During Christmas they collected names of elderly and shut-in people and delivered fruit baskets to them. The Bible Club provides opportunities to grow in knowledge and compassion for others.
